

Manchester Medical Society
Section of Anaesthesia
&
The Royal Society of Medicine
Section of Anaesthesia
Fifth joint all-day meeting

New Drugs in Anaesthesia
Friday 12th September 2008

The Manchester Conference Centre
Weston Building, Sackville Street, Manchester
[Situated very close to Piccadilly Station]

The challenges of drug development – the birth of propofol
*Dr J B Glen, Glen Pharma Limited

Dexmedetomidine – a drug for the future?
*Professor Mervyn Maze, Imperial College London

Developments in GABA receptor pharmacology
*Dr Barbara J Pleuvry, Department of Pharmacology,
The University of Manchester

When human drugs trials go wrong – the TGN 1412 debacle
*Dr Ganesh Suntharalingam, Clinical Director of Intensive Care Medicine, North West London Hospitals NHS Trust

The development of Sugammadex
*Dr A Bom, Senior Research Fellow, Organon Laboratories Ltd

Sugammadex: does it really work?
*Professor Rajinder K Mirakhur, Professor of Surgery & Perioperative Care,
The Queen's University of Belfast

Anaesthesia in 50 years time – a trip in Professor Pollard's time machine
*Professor Brian Pollard, Professor of Anaesthesia, The University of Manchester

APPLICATION FORM for New Drugs in Anaesthesia on 12th September 2008 (please print and return with remittance of £150.00). Confirmation of place will be sent to delegates, together with a receipt of payment.

NameEmail

Organisation

Address

..... Tel No

Cheque to be made payable to Manchester Medical Society and returned to:
The Administrator, Manchester Medical Society, c/o John Rylands University Library, Oxford Road,
Manchester, M13 9PP (Telephone 0161 273 6048)