SPRING SYMPOSIUM

Chairman: Dr Kieran Moriarty, CBE

3.00pm Professor Eamonn Quigley
(Professor of Medicine, University College Cork)
"Irritable Bowel Syndrome (IBS) 2010; light at the end of the tunnel at the end of the light?"

3.40pm TEA

4.00 pm Dr Kevin Jones
(Consultant Physician, Royal Bolton Hospital NHS Foundation Trust)
"Come over to acute medicine if you think you're hard enough"

Dr Jones will talk about his personal experience in the organisation of care of acute medical emergencies admitted to the Royal Bolton Hospital. It will be illustrated by reference to actual case histories of patients admitted to the Acute Medical Receiving Unit at the Royal Bolton Hospital.

The talk will be interactive in that members of the audience will be encouraged to suggest diagnosis and management of real cases.

4.40pm Dr Colm O'Mahony
(Consultant Physician in Sexual Health, Countess of Chester NHS Foundation Trust)

Are sex, love, passion and desire compatible with a medical marriage

The topic will cover—most marriages start off with passion, love and desire, but gradually the hassles of work, mortgages, overdrafts and even children, erode into the time couples have for each other, and relationships drift. Keeping the fun going requires commitment and time. Some useful tips gleaned from my 20 years in sexual health will be passed on.
