

Manchester Medical Society &
The Royal Society of Medicine
Sections of Anaesthesia
Fifth joint all-day meeting

SPECIAL OFFER!

New Drugs in Anaesthesia
Friday 12th September 2008

The Manchester Conference Centre
Weston Building, Sackville Street, Manchester, M1 3BB
[Situated very close to Piccadilly Station]

The challenges of drug development – the birth of propofol
*Dr J B Glen, Glen Pharma Limited

Dexmedetomidine – a drug for the future?
*Professor Mervyn Maze, Imperial College London

Developments in GABA receptor pharmacology
*Dr Barbara J Pleuvry, Department of Pharmacology,
The University of Manchester

When human drugs trials go wrong – the TGN 1412 debacle
*Dr Ganesh Suntharalingam, Clinical Director of Intensive Care Medicine, North West London Hospitals NHS Trust

The development of Sugammadex
*Dr A Bom, Senior Research Fellow, Organon Laboratories Ltd

Sugammadex: does it really work?
*Professor Rajinder K Mirakhur, Professor of Surgery & Perioperative Care,
The Queen's University of Belfast

Anaesthesia in 50 years time – a trip in Professor Pollard's time machine
*Professor Brian Pollard, Professor of Anaesthesia, The University of Manchester

APPLICATION FORM for New Drugs in Anaesthesia on 12th September 2008 (please complete and return with remittance). Confirmation of place will be sent to delegates, together with a receipt of payment.

Name Email

Organisation

Address

..... Tel No

FULL DAY (to include lunch and coffee) £150.00

MORNING ONLY £60.00 AFTERNOON ONLY £60.00

Cheque to be made payable to Manchester Medical Society and returned to:
The Administrator, Manchester Medical Society, c/o John Rylands University Library, Oxford Road,
Manchester. M13 9PP (Telephone 0161 273 6048)