

Aali Sheen is a consultant surgeon at Manchester University Foundation Trust since 2005. He has a specialist interest in both HPB and Hernia surgery. His higher surgical training was undertaken in the NW Manchester region since from 1998. Other positions he has held include President of the British Hernia Society and he also holds an honorary chair from the University of Manchester.